

Pamela Mills Poulson Ravenberg

February 25, 1952 ~ January 27, 2025

I’m sorry that this world has lost our unique, creative, and brilliant “Pamella.” We became fast friends in high school and furthered that friendship during our UofU days. (I picked her up most mornings and enjoyed the drive!). As often is the case, we corresponded only sporadically after that. I remember her later Er years best as a willing follower through her beloved Red Butte garden. What a lovely spirit! She will always be one of my happy thoughts.

- Rosemary Smith