Nathan Scott Davis

September 11, 1979 ~ February 5, 2019

Nathan Scott Davis, of Sandy, UT, passed away February 5, 2019 at the age of 39, at St.Mark's Hospital after a short but fierce battle with stage 4 Renal Cell Carcinoma (Kidney Cancer).

Nate was born in Monroe, Snohomish, Washington on September 11, 1979. Nate was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and served a mission at the age of 19 in Cochabamba, Bolivia. He married the love of his life, Alicia Gardner, on May 17, 2002 and settled in Sandy, Utah where they had 4 beautiful children. Nate touched many lives and waspassionate about helping others. He served faithfully in all his callings, including as a Bishopand remained strong in the faith through his passing.

Nate is survived by his wife, Alicia; 4 children: Anna (15), Brooklyn (13), Cami (11), Drake (9); his parents: Scott and Kristy Davis; 5 siblings: Nichole (Phil) Larsen, Krystal (Gordon) Hunt, Matt (Natalie) Davis, Josh (Indy) Davis, Jacob (Renee) Davis and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 pm on Saturday, February 9, 2019 at Sandy West Stake Center, 8670 South 220 East, Sandy, UT. A visitation will be held Friday evening from 6:00 , 8:00 pm and Saturday from 12:00 , 1:30 pm prior to the services.