All of my childhood, the Penrose Family Reunions, Luncheons, Holidays, Birthdays, or Snowbird Parties with my G'ma Lu. Peggy and Gaylon would always attend. I remember Peggy's smile and that of all the little cousins of her cousins she remembered "my name" and would say, "oh it's good to see you again Jennifer, how are you?" I LOVED that she remembered me!! It honestly reaffirmed the quote by someone- "one kind smile or word can make all the difference!" THANKYOU Peggy sweet older cousin of my Mom Marjorie - I will miss you! ❤■ Jennifer

Peggy was definitely one of the elect -- such a special lady. I always enjoyed being around her. Thank you for posting those fun family photos. It was great to see her grow up in her life's journey and see her siblings. We thoroughly enjoyed the comments in her service. It is such a blessing to get to know more aspects of a person's life. Julie, you did an awesome job sharing your remarks during the service. I could certainly relate to you on the bus rides. My mom didn't drive either and since there was a big gap between my sisters and I, I always got mom and me time (just the two of us)/ We always rode the bus downtown to pay bills and if there was money left over, we got fresh-made taffy from the little shop by the bus stop. Your analogy of catching the bus to our heavenly home was very relateable. Thank you again for sharing your mom's passing with us. We will always treasure the friendship and memories we shared with your family. If you ever come down our way in St George, we would love to see you and your hubby. God bless your family through this difficult time of separation. Love, the Hancocks

We absolutely love Peggy. Our family has the greatest memories of Peggy and Gaylon. They were such a light in our lives. I can only imagine the reunion with her beloved and her kids is what the pure love of Christ looks like. Our hearts are with Julie and her family. Thank you for sharing your parents with us and all those they loved. - with all our hearts: the Malili Family (Jared, Ashley, and Mercedes)
