Any loss of loved one can be painful but the loss of someone so young adds and element of dread and hopelessness. David, I am praying for you and your family and the immediate family of this loved one you have lost, Praying that God will give you a deep peace and comfort that will leave you with good memories that will bring back and restore hope and peace. Be blessed and may God protect you in your travels.

I’m a little late doing this. Not sure it’ll be read. I remember the mizells as a wonderful and kind family. Racheal was beautiful and talented. So sorry to hear of her passing. My thoughts and good wishes are with the family and all those affected

Raquel, I never got to meet you in person. I did message you back and forth the same year you left. And I know that this world is a darker place now. I am facing similar struggles and I wish I had you here to talk to and ask some advice. To ask you if these struggles came from the same evil person. I think you were beautiful, brave, encouraging, talented and I think we would have been great friends. After reading your messages to me recently and now knowing that pain myself, I hope you are beyond happy, laughing and making music someplace in the ethers of time. We all deserve to be carefree. Filled with the love of those around us. And unafraid. You have inspired me a lot. And someday I hope our paths cross again. Say hello to Josh for me. He has been a close friend since childhood. All my respect and love. From another lost star... Macy
