

Allen Lee Taylor

February 22, 1938 ~ June 8, 2020

Debbie and Rich my condolences on the passing of Allen your father. Prayers and thoughts are with you and your family!

So sorry that Allen had to go through what he went through. He has a life to be proud of. I dislike the idea that all us cousins have passed through the years of life and aged so that we're at the stage where death will take us one by one. I protest! I'm sad Allen has come to this point. I look forward to safely seeing you at the viewing Tuesday.

This is message no. 2. I'm sorry I didn't get to talk with Nita & Wilma & Ron last night. You were gone before I knew it. And I didn't get to see Kay, but saw your handsome son with your mother's eyes. I enjoyed talking with Beth & Dan & Bob & some sons & daughters. I'm sorry for our loss & for what Allen had to go through. The greatest grief I've felt is when I lost my brother, Calvin. I'm thinking of you all, wondering how you are. My email should be above. Would love to hear from you.
