My heart and all my love goes out to Micheal and the kids.. I'm so very sorry to hear of your loss... The world has lost such a bright light.

- Alisha Berry

My condolences to the family. May she rest in heaven with God watching over her always

- Jannette Shamaly

My heart is heavy for your lose. My sister Dawn loved Kim and believed in her. I know she is heartbroken losing her. The many times I met Kim I saw the fight she was fighting. She was strong and faced so much hardship. She blessed the lives around her as she endured her own journey. She was a beautiful person inside and out. She had many demons fighting against her and I believe as far as she came it was exhausting and the hurt to deep. I lost my BF to suicide and know how painful it is for those left behind. She is in a better place and I believe she will be a heavenly angle for you and her children. May God bless you and all those that were in her life with comfort, strength and peace through this process of grieving. My thought and prayers are with you all! Love Robin

- Robin Adams

Words cannot express my deepest sympathies for ALL of you! I love you all dearly and am SO sorry for your loss. Praying that you may feel love, peace and comfort at this time.

Marilyn, Steve and family. It breaks my heart for you all to have to experience the great pain of the loss of Kim! She has always been the light of the Nance family! Every family reunion/family event she would show up with the biggest and brightest smile (you would never know that she had many struggles in life), and made her way around to everyone to give us her awesome hugs and and ask how we are doing! And when asked, she would say she was doing "good". It is truely so unfair that she had many demons in her life that would not allow her to achieve the complete happiness that she well deserved! She was such a beautiful, strong woman and I love her and will miss her dearly! I can only find comfort that she is in a place where she has found peace and her pain is gone. I know she misses each and every family member, friend, patient, acquaintance, etc, but it was just too painful for her to fight any longer, and this is what was best for her. Most will never even begin to understand what she has gone through/felt in her short 40 years of life, but I do understand that it was "unbearable", and I commend her for her strength to fight for as long as she had!! Much love and comfort to all of you, and I pray that you will all find peace in knowing that she is no longer struggling and that you will see her again someday! Until then, I know she will be by your side and watch over you! Hugs and kisses, Tricia Rawson

So deeply saddened to hear of Kim’s passing. Although my main friendship was with Stephanie, I remember many moments with Kim in which we shared hardships, triumphs, and pregnancies with our firsts. ■ Kim was hilarious, kind and genuine with me. My heart aches for your family. I pray for strength and love to surround you all. And I pray for Kim that she is truly in peace and love. May she shine her brilliant light. ■

- Jayme Arroyave (Saunders)

My condolences to the family. Sadly Kim is gone from the eyes but not the minds or hearts of those who knew her, nor from God's lasting memory. John 5:28,29

- Renee

I remember Kim in Softball and Umpiring for team, what a joy she was. I pray that she finally found peace. God Bless

- Tina Mercer

I can't believe you're not with us anymore. Kim, you were always kind to everyone. Thank you for great memories. Love you girl!

- Keila Mower

I was Kim’s neighbor. I got to know her very well and our children played together. We created memories, she came over often, and she was a great person. She took lessons with the sister missionaries a couple of months before she passed. I know she loved her parents and her children so much. I am glad I got to meet such a sweet amazing person in this lifetime.
