Very sad! I'm sorry for your loss! My condolences and prayers for y'all! May she Rest in peace! Please remember that she's no longer suffering, is in a better place, is watching over y'all and when Heavenly Father feels the time is right y'all will be reunited with her! She was a very kind and loving woman who was like a Mom to me! She raised all of you the right way! I love and miss you all so much!
