3-4 days? Omg, I didn't realize the time frame was so small...I guess I always assumed she would just charge through these obstacles as she always had in the past. Her strength has always been awe inspiring, I've never known anyone who has this level of courage, she has always stood up to every challenge like a boss! I always wished I had even half the strength she does, it's just amazing.... If for some reason I am not able to tell her how much I love her & what our Friendship/Sisterhood has meant to me over the last "forever" years, please read this to her (but leave out the tears that cannot stop falling down my face). It seems as though we have known each other for more years than humanly possible, my dearest friend. You & I were destined to become Best Friends, I knew it from the very minute I met you that you would be someone I could not live without. I saw your Golden Heart, your Sweet Grace & your Beautiful Spirit immediately & I knew you could teach me so much of what you possessed that I did not... We made the perfect pair, and everyone who ever saw us together knew it! There will never be another quite like you, my friend. No one could ever mean more to me than you do, it's just impossible. The enormous space you reside in my heart will forever be yours, and you will never be forgotten, for that too would be impossible. How could anyone ever measure up to my Sister? There's just no way.... There's a song by Led Zeppelin, it's my favorite & the lyrics have always meant so much to me, it's only now that I understand why that is.....They go like this: If the sun refused to shine, I would still be loving you... When mountains crumble to the sea, there will still be you & me.... Little drops of rain, whisper of the pain, Tears of loves lost in the days gone by.. My love is strong, there is no wrong, Together we shall go until we die... Inspirations' what you are to me, Inspiration, look & see.. And so today, my world smiles, your hand in mine we walk the miles... Thanks to you, my will is done, You for me are the only one. I love you my dearest Sister, you will always be a part of me no matter where, no matter what. I will not say Goodbye, I will take you with me wherever I may go. Be at peace with the knowledge that I've been the luckiest person on earth for having you grace my life & giving me the honor of being your Bestest Friend Ever... Until I see you again... ❤
