Hello there, I have such wonderful memories of being next door neighbors with you and having your children as friends. And although I was a big stinker, I loved you guys. Dear Nona- I am so very sorry to see that your beautiful daughter has passed away. My heart goes out to you (as does any parent who has lost a child) It is something that has happened out of order-so for a time your whole life will seem upside down. Trust in your spouse-those closest to you & your Heavenly Father. Help & comfort are only a Prayer away-even at the worst times ahead. If you need anything-even a good listener please reach out. Love, Roberta

- Roberta Meldrum Saxton

Dear Nona no one else can truly feel the sorrow that you bear, But hopefully it will help to know that I really care I'm so sorry for your loss my heart and prayers are with you. Love you lots Anna

Dear Porter Family, Our hearts are filled with sorrow for your family at this time of grief. You are so very dear to us and so loved. We know that our Father in Heaven and His Son have their arms wrapped around you. They will not leave you comfortless. They will come to you. (John 14:18) This quote from Neal A. Maxwell has brought me peace and comfort at the passing of my loved ones. I hope it will touch your heart as well: "At Funerals our tears are genuine, but not because of termination-rather because of interruption. Though just as wet, our tears are not of despair but are of appreciation and anticipation. Yes, for disciples, the closing of a grave is but the closing of a door which later will be flung open with rejoicing." Much love, Ben and Laurel Deaver
