

Ronald Van Riper

December 16, 1963 ~ January 12, 2022

Victoria and Josh (and all of your precious Dad's family, etc.): There truly are no words to convey the sorrow and disbelief that your amazing Dad is gone from this earth. Ron was definitely one of the most incredible men I've ever known and the fact that he took on the role of both father and mother when you both were so very young still amazes me because there are very few people in this life who would not only do that but do it so very well. I have no doubt that you both, as well as all of his family, were his entire world. And there are very few people who have the privilege (and realize it) of having a parent, friend, loved one, etc., etc., etc. like your Dad. His legacy will live on forever in all of you and I rejoice in the knowledge that this life is not the end but just the beginning for those who know Jesus as their Lord and Savior and your Dad knew that, too. We send you all our love and prayers...■
