

Margaret M. McEntee

September 13, 1952 ~ April 27, 2023

In my faith, I will believe and pray this beautiful life is not over, but transformed to an eternal sentience. Such are and will be my prayers. Peg was, and is, one of the finest friends and colleagues in journalism I've ever known. She is my sister in ways experiential and perhaps metaphysical.

- Bob Mims

I struggle to find the right words, but I cannot find them. I give you my love and hope that we can get together.

- Ken