

Russell Lees Jacobsen

December 12, 1955 ~ August 7, 2025

My most sincere condolences on your loss. I didn't know Russell for too long. However, in the little time I got to know him, I thought he was a very espcial and great man. Loosing a loved one is tough, but I'm sure he is resting in a better place now and some day we will all have the opportunity to see the those who we have lost along the way. Christian Aranda.
