

Mavis Josephine Drabner

August 8, 1936 ~ December 14, 2025

---

Charlie, John and Debbie I’m so sorry to read about your mom’s death! She was such a beautiful person and always made me feel welcomed to the family! Now she is with the man she so truly loved. She is not in pain and she will always be in your hearts. No matter what you do or where you go, she will always be watching over you. She will always be by your side!❤■

- Dolores Drabner

---

We loved Aunt Mavis. She was one of Mom's favorite people to spend time with. Uncle Charlie and Aunt Mavis would visit us or we would visit them whenever occasion allowed us to be in the same city. I am reminded of something Elder Uchtdorf said, our destiny is not everlasting endings. Rather, we can look forward to everlasting beginnings. That brings me comfort, especially knowing Mavis may be reunited with loved ones who preceded her in leaving this world, most notably her loving husband, Charlie who I am sure is playing a round of golf or two every day.

- Shane Albrecht