TO BARBARA AND RICH, AND THE BADGER FAMILY: Joy and I had mixed emotions as we read the obituary of your dear mother-the matriarch of your family. First, we marveled at the accomplishments of this great woman and the opportunity we had of meeting and conversing, on occasion, with her; but Second, we regretted that , while our daughters, Emily Hamblin and Allison Dunstan, resided next door to her, we didn't take greater advantage of basking in her "glory" and offering our love and support of and for her. We express our gratitude for such a good neighbor and mentor to Emily and Allison and their families. Unfortunately, we weren't blessed to serve in the Europe Area at the same time Wanda and Bri were there. We were deprived of what would have been a wonderful opportunity. With love & warmest wishes, Bob & Joy
