

Oscar Wood Moyle IV

February 5, 1972 ~ May 19, 2024

Wood's monstrous laugh will live in the heads and hearts of many long past his departure. I am so sorry for the loss.

- Zeke Dumke IV

Becca, Ocky, and all of Wood’s family, it’s been a struggle to accept Wood’s incredibly sad departure. I’ve sat next to him at every Westminster board meeting the past nine years. I will miss him terribly. My arms are around all of you.

- Muffy Mead

My sincere condolences to the family. It’s a huge loss.

I will miss my cousin, his joy, laugh and the sparkle in his eyes. I am saddened beyond belief with this loss. I am holding you and yours in my heart during this time and always. May his memory be eternal

I was heartbroken to hear of Wood's passing. I've only known him a few years, but he was always so welcoming and kind. He made me, and everyone else, feel like a close friend. I'm grateful for the time he mentored me on the Westminster University board. He was a wonderful friend and father, and his service in the community was inspiring. Becca, Ocky, and Emma I am so sorry for your loss.

I had the pleasure and knowing and working with Wood during his time with the Salt Lake City Department of Airports. He was well liked and had a great sense of humor. It is heartening to know that Wood went on to marry, have a family and do work that he cared about (he often spoke of the Burton Foundation, Natural History Museum, etc.). I extend my deepest condolences to his family and loved ones.

- Tamra (Oleson) Turpin

One of the kindest and gentlest people I have ever known. The best booming laugh that I ever heard. I will always remember you as my center in the paint. The best teammate anyone could ask for. Rest in Peace.

I adored Wood. He was my boyfriend in high school and after. I am so sorry that he passed so young. I was a kid who was extremely poor, who was a nobody. Wood and I really liked each other. I remember him as my friend who watched movies that he hated and who thought about military books and movies constantly. I’m so sad he has passed . Wood was my first love. I was glad he found someone he adored/ I’m so sad he’s gone.
