

GARTH N. JONES, Ph.D.

February 24, 1925 ~ July 1, 2020

I am the son of G. Homer Durham (1911-1985) who admired and mentored Garth N. Jones as Professor Jones did his Ph.D. graduate work in political science in the 1950's. I have memories of our father speaking of Garth with authentic affection and respect. I spoke with Dr. Jones at a recent U of U CSBS scholarship celebration and I am grateful that I was able to thank him personally for his good feelings about our Dad.

Dear Kevin and Drew, What a wonderful life Garth led, and I am so honored to have been a small part of it. He was not just a client in my eyes, but a true friend. He and Marie always made an appointment more than just a mere getting together, it was an occasion. I loved your Dad, he was the BEST. I will cherish his memory for the rest of my own life. I am grateful. We had some good times, and many laughs along the way. He was also a great teacher, and I was often his student. My Condolences on his passing, Sincerely, Chris
