- Nancy Burrell and Family

I was in the Larsen house a fair amount as a kid growing up. I remember both parents being very welcoming to me. I remember him always being very busy and that orange Datsun 240Z he bought when I was a mid teenager. I knew for sure he was one of the coolest dad's ever! I also remember Mom Larsen raking the newly installed shag carpeting to make sure it always looked nice. I never saw their Mountain Green home but from what I know of the two of them it must have been immaculate. High quality, hard working people who raised a bunch of high quality children. I think young Rick and I have been destined to be best buddies for life, even at times living half a world away and not seeing each other for decades at a time. I'm grateful to know the Larsen family and call them friends. Dad Larsen will no doubt be missed greatly and the hole created in the lives of loved ones with his passing will never close up, but that's as it should be. All my best to the greater Larsen family. May the solace of knowing he has gone on to even greater things and being in the company of those loved ones who went on before him bring peace and comfort to your hearts. May God bless you all! Please double up on love for your mom while she's still with you.
