Laura and Dell I am so sad to hear this tragic news. I can only imagine that losing a child would be one of the most difficult of life's challenges. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. When I think of you two I see a husband and wife who are strong and valiant in their testimonies of Christ, a couple who gave their all to raise children that would follow the teachings of the Gospel. And now you are called upon to endure this trial. I know the Lord will bless you as you make the necessary life adjustments and strive to find peach. Let me know if there is anything I can do to help you. All my love to you and your family.

Rob was there for me at a very difficult time in my life. He would drop everything to help anyone who needed it. He was the life of the party wherever he went … a big personality but also had a very soft caring side. He will be dearly missed by so many. -Ashley Downie
