

Ronald J. Rinaldi

January 26, 1961 ~ September 2, 2023

We send you love.

- Maria Rinaldi and Andrew Eales

My deepest condolences to your family. I am so sorry for your loss.

- Ted May

I am so sorry to hear this. I send love, hugs and prayers to all of you.

- Gina Tanner Reed

We are very sorry about your loss. Ron was an amazing person! We will be praying for all of you! Hugs and Love, Tammy & Harold

- Tammy Vallem & Harold Tanner

I’m so sorry to hear about Ron. I can’t even imagine. Dick, Verda, Susan, Rick, Rachael and all the kids -I send my love and strength. Ronnie and I got to spend a little time together when we were both in DC. He was so smart and accomplished. A very impressive soul!

- Michelle M. Rinaldi

So glad you sent this so we could know Ron better! He definitely loved to learn and I'm sure he felt blessed to live with you! Families are everything and you certainly have one that is full of love!!! So thankful to know that families are forever! But to be without him now, when he was such a supportive and ever present son must be so heart wrenching. We will continue to keep you in our prayers! ■■

How incredibly privileged I was to know and love Ron Rinaldi. He was my first love. And he left an indelible imprint. My sweetest and deepest condolences to all of you as we say goodbye to him for now. And it is my fervent hope to see him again in eternity.

- Emily Franklin

Thanks Ron for making my life more interesting. Rest in Peace.

Writing from England, I have just heard the shocking and sad news about our friend Ron. Ron was a much loved member of the Oxford University golf team. He was and always will be a legend. If a family member picks up this message please contact me on ac@epsilonpartners.com

- Angus Chilvers

I am so sad to hear of Ron's passing. I was a fellow Rhodes scholar (Jeff Rideout, Oregon and Magdalen) and I know as several of us in the Rhodes community are learning about this, it is with heavy heart and great admiration we say good bye to Ron. My best to all who loved him.

- Jeff Rideout

On behalf of all of us at Rhodes House in Oxford, heartfelt condolences to the Rinaldi family and to all of Ron's friends on his sudden and untimely loss. He was a cherished member of the Rhodes Scholar community and will be greatly missed. Wishing all of you solace and peace at this difficult time, Elizabeth (Virginia & Balliol 1983), Warden of Rhodes House
