I'm so sorry for your loss and I hope your Mom and Carol don't cause too much trouble in heaven!

- Stephen McGee

I’m sending condolences from this part of the family. We are sorry for your loss. Rosie was such a beautiful spirit. She truly did love and care for everyone, especially family. Her heart was so pure and full of love and warmth. I hope you cherish the amazing memories forever. May God’s blessings, love and strength be poured upon you as you pass through this difficult time. Love, from the (Rodney) Allen part of the family.

Hi! I worked with Rosemary at Cascades for over a year and let me tell you, Rosemary was my favorite resident I ever got the chance to care for. Rosemary cared so genuinely for everyone working at cascades and always made such an effort to make conversation and a relationship with her caregivers. I feel very blessed to have been able to care for Rosemary and make sure she felt loved. She was an amazing woman and I feel very grateful to hold her in my heart.

Dear Angie, Ashley and Scott, I’m so deeply saddened for the loss of your mom Rosemary "Peanut" Allen, our deepest condolences go out to each and everyone of you and all of your families, she was such an incredible person with a big heart and beautiful soul, I have so many great memories of Aunt Rosie, so many, I am going to truly miss her. She struggled and suffered the last few years of her life, and a lifetime with the loss of her two children at such a young age was so devastating and heartbreaking that most people would have broke most. She was a fighter all the way to the end, tough as nails and would not give up, that is truly admirable and such an inspiration for us all, what a fight she gave. Aunt Rosie was so strong and resilient, she fought through the toughest of tough times, trust me, they were tough times, she and Mario bonded together and built a home and had two beautiful daughters Angie and Ashley, she helped raised them and so many Grandchildren to the best of her abilities with so much love that she could give, she truly loved her family more than anything in this world and wanted nothing but the best for you all, Aunt Rosie I hope you are now out of pain and heartbreak and have reunited with your beautiful angels Alicia Marie and Anthony, I know they were right there waiting at heaven's gate with their beautiful smiles and loving arms to take you home to your final resting place, I would have given anything just to see your faces at that moment, we are all going to miss you and your fun spunky personality, Dearest Aunt Rosie, we all loved you very much and until we meet and see each other again - Rest In Paradise. God Bless You. Love, Lonny, Crystal, Azaria and Indieya.

Dear Angela, Ashley, Christopher & Mario So sorry for your loss wife & mother means losing a piece of your heart. She will always be with you remembered forever. She is the Angel on your shoulder watching over you all. All your precious memories will help you get through your sorrow. She loved & adored her children, & grandchildren, she always was so proud of their accomplishments. She loved her husband dearly and they were together for many years. They raised their children & helped with grandchildren as needed. They were always there for family & friends (always). They were proud of what they had accomplished as a loving caring family. My sweet sister Rosie (Rose Bud). A sister is forever where ever we end up in life. Whether near or far from each other, having a sister means having a bond that can never be broken. I will cherish & remember all of are fun times. We had many some good & some just got us through life we still wonder how. Until we meet again on the other side watch over us. Give hugs to those who left us too soon & remember we love you dearly. Now you can rest in peace as you really deserve. Love You Forever & Always Bonnie Jepson (aka) Jo-Jo Until

Dear Uncle Mario, Ashley, Angie, and all of Aunt Rosey’s grandchildren, I’ve been thinking about all of you and just wanted to say how sorry I am for the loss that you have suffered. Aunt Rosey really meant a lot to me. She was kind, gentle, and loving. She made everyone feel special. It was always so nice to spend time with her. I only wish I had done it more often. But because I was able to spend what little time I had with her, I now have many good memories that I’ll always cherish. I’ve always admired how she kept going through all the difficulties and tragedies of her life, but what amazes me is that she never stopped caring about the people around her. That’s the hallmark of someone truly special. She loved you all so much and was so proud of you, and I know she still is. I’m sure she’s keeping an eye on you all, so keep making her proud. I love you all, and I pray that God’s blessing be upon you during these difficult days to come. You’re all in my thoughts and prayers. With love, Sammy
