

Rosie Kink Halliday

August 24, 1926 ~ July 5, 2025

It was easy to love Rosie. Her “do it right” attitude with compassion and tolerance for all was contagious. Her determination was evident no matter the situation. She was a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother who loved the Lord and her family. My years working with Rosie at the law firm are fond memories. I am so glad to have been her friend. I sincerely join all who love Rosie. May your sorrows be overcome by sweet memories. Families are forever.

Dear Paul and Vicki, I just read your mom‘s obituary and she was a great lady. I’m so sorry for your loss. I’m sending my love to you and your family.
