

Sharla Jean Shoemaker Neale

April 12, 1950 ~ July 12, 2024

Sharla was the nicest person we were lucky enough to run into at Chevron and get to know over the years. We always made it a point to go to her store because we knew she would be there and enjoyed sharing stories with her. She will be truly missed. Our condolences to the family.

This is such a lovely tribute to Aunt Sharla. I know she was lovingly greeted on the other side by her beloved parents. She will be missed—tremendously!! ❤■

I loved Sharla, although I did not get to see her as much as I would like to as I lived out of state. But when I did get to see her it was a grand reunion. She was always so sweet and nice to me and always told me how much she loved me. I know she will be well received in the Spirit World.

Sharla and I have been neighbors for the last several years. We had many long conversations about life and she was always so friendly and happy to be alive. We laughed and talked often. She was a good neighbor and friend, and I am so sorry that she's gone. My thoughts go to her beloved daughter, Michelle and husband Shawn and their daughters. Also to her brothers whom she truly loved. May God comfort you all in this very sad time.

I am so sorry for the loss of Sharla. I've known Sharla my whole life. Her and my mom, Gayle have been friends since the beginning of time. I'm deeply saddened and in shock at the news of her passing. She will be remembered with much fondness. Condolences to her family members she left behind. Rest in Paradide, dear friend.

I met Sharla a little over 4 years ago at the Holiday Oil she worked at. Little did I know, we'd become great friends over those years. She even knew my father, because he works at a store nearby. I visited her almost every day, and a conversation with her became my regular. This is heartbreaking to see that she has passed. Sharla touched the lives of so many. Every person that came into that store often, she knew them by name. She is such a caring and genuine woman, and she showed that by just being herself. I will dearly miss her being a part of my every day life. Rest easy, Sharla.

Shayla was one of the best people I know. She was a joy every time I delivered fuel to her store and always anticipated a good scare from me. I'll miss her smiling, happy face and fun attitude.

Sharla was a blessing to everyone that met her. A beautiful and loving friend. I will miss seeing her smiling face and getting a great big hug from her. Her family meant the world to her. She loved that we could talk about our faith in Jesus Christ. Her spunky spirit and lovely personality will never be forgotten. She loved and cared for so many people and they all loved her in return. Love you Sharla, I miss your bright spirit already my wonderful friend.
