My beautiful sweet baby granddaughter Aaliyah Jay you couldn’t hear me saying to you that granny loves you so much and that I was on my way to meet and cuddle you. I now ask that you patiently wait for the time when granny will meet you in the sacred eternal place that you now call home. I know that you were chosen to add to the beautiful garden of souls in heaven. I also know that the Lord and all the angels are caring for you. Amir and Susana, Aaliyah was sent here for a short 3 weeks because she had a special assignment to fulfill and although she had to leave her spirit is and will continue to work.

- Teresa Rucker

I was scrolling to find my mothers obituary and I saw the picture of your sweet little girl. My heart instantly broke for you, her family. What a sweet looking Angel. My mom would always cry when she saw babies in the obituaries. That is what prompted me to let you know my condolences. It looks like they shared a birthday too, which hit a bit close to home. I hope you are able to carry her in your hearts forever, and though her time here was brief, she was very obviously loved.

- Melissa

This was devastating to come across. Sending my most sincere condolences to you Susi, Amir and yours. I can only imagine how hard this was and has been. Praying for you all that God will deliver peace and comfort. No doubt baby Aaliya is smiling down on you. Positive vibes from my family to yours. Best, Anthony
