

Shauna Fowles

December 26, 1970 ~ July 24, 2023

We have loved our niece Shauna for many years, and have suffered with her in these recent years. Her Aunt Sandra passed this year and I expect they will be part of the reunion in the spirit world. Her husband and family have sincere condolences.

My sincere condolences and love to the Family! Shauna and I wasn't the best of friends but she was always pleasant and very nice . I know that God has a bigger plan for her to take her so soon. I will keep the family in my prayers.

To Rich and the Kids- I am so sorry about Shauna. She really did fight this cancer with all her might, mind, and soul. She is an amazing woman and will be missed here on earth but her mission in paradise has only just begun. I know she will always be looking after her family and friends. My deepest sympathy to all her loved ones.

It’s very difficult to put into words how much Shauna meant to me. She was my Angel through a difficult time and hope she continues to be my Angel from the other side. I think of her as a sister and will remember her always from different places, songs, restaurants and sayings. I’m happy she no longer has to fight & struggle, but I will forever miss her. Hugs & prayers for her family. I love you all dearly. Till we meet again, my friend.

I am so very sad to hear this news. Am keeping the family close in thought, prayer, and my heart. Indeed she was a blessing to many and a shining example in so many ways. Her passing is deeply felt. May God keep all in her family blessed with strength as you deal with this void and loss in your lives. Love and comforting hugs to all.

Dear Fowles Family, I cannot stop thinking about and visualizing the pain you are enduring at the loss of your wife, mother, and friend. I pray the Holy Ghost will visit you often to make the pathway easier for you. She is a big loss for you and for her friends. God Bless.

I am so sorry to hear about Shauna’s passing. I am so grateful to have had her as a dance teacher and for the years I spent at Success Dance Company. She was always so kind and encouraging. I will always look back fondly at the many memories of dance performances and competitions, the large containers of candy like AtomicBalls, the ribbons she gave out for best kicks and toe touches, and the love she showed toward her students. Sending my condolences to her family and loved ones, and will continue to keep you in my thoughts and prayers.

We have been blessed immensely to know Luke over the past year. He is an incredible young man. We love him dearly. As we read this beautiful tribute to Shauna, we can see where he got such great qualities. What a blessing her life has been to this world. We send our deepest condolences to the Fowles family. We will strive to live a little better, reach out to those on the periphery, and love others a little better, all in her memory.

Dear Fowles Family, Our heartfelt prayers are with you all at this time. I (Lance) was their home teacher for a time while Elmhurst was still into our ward boundaries. Our oldest daughter, Samantha, was their piano teacher, introducing all of them to the musical art of piano and we always enjoyed watching them perform at the recitals. We love Shauna. She was always a ray of sunshine and a smile you could count on. Though it's been many years since I last saw the Fowles children who are all still very young in my minds eye, my prayer for each of you as you face the challenges ahead as you and we mourn the loss of your dear mother, and our dear friend. God bless you all. - Lance & Melanie King (Villa Park, IL)

Shauna, you were my first friend in Illinois because I was “a little bit ornery.” You were my lifeline. Thank you for making me laugh., the snuggles, always forgiving me, pestering me to have another kid, and teaching me that horses are beautiful. Rich said Elmhurst was your Camelot. You, Shauna, were MY Camelot. I love you.
