So sorry to hear about your loss. There really isn't much a person can say at a time like this that makes it better so I won't try. I'll just say that I said a prayer for you and your wife that The Lord will help you through it.

Dear Mecham family I am very sad for you all. I've known Aaron for many years and have always liked and cared for him. He would stop in or write me on FB occasionally and always had nice things to say. He promised that he would get his Black Belt some day, now I'm sure he will. I'm sending love and light to your family and Aaron. Peace be with you. Sincerely, Sandra Martinez

Dear God We pray for the spirit of Aaron take him into your arms, dear Lord, and bring peace to his soul, and may his transition be sweet. Please take this beautiful soul and spirit into the sweetest corner of your mind, the most tender place in your heart that he and his family might be comforted. For now he has gone and I pray Dear God that Aaron have strength to remember he has not gone far. For he is with you and shall remain forever, and he remains within his loved ones for we are all in You. Dear God please take Aaron in his grief into your arms that it may be lessened and understood. Please guide his pain into the the most sacred chambers of his heart, where You reside , so that he may understand the sacred mysteries of death and love. Amen

It was a joy having the special moments I got to spend with Aaron when he was a teenager hiking, swimming, visiting and watching him enjoy life. It’s comforting to know all the great qualities he expressed are still with us in thought. We send our deepest sympathies to Shawn, Lance, Meghan and Emily during this very difficult time. Aaron was a good friend in highschool. We played volleyball together and did woodshop, and other classes together. Him and my brother kory really liked him. I spoke with Aaron just in June touching bases. Aaron was always supportive and nice. He is in heaven at peace I believe and we'll meet him again.

I was so sad to hear that Aaron had passed away. I grew up with him when we were little, and will remember the good memories we had together. He will be missed. I loved how he would protect people and stand up for them. He also was a great artist and father to his son. He will be missed. May he find peace for his kind soul in heaven. Sending hugs to all his family and friends. With love, Tiffany (Garner) Angel

I recently reached out to Aaron to check on him to see how he had been doing. I hadn't been in touch with him in the last couple of years. I just found out. I am so sorry to hear of his passing he was a good friend I have known the last 12 years. I send my love to your family.
