I'm so sorry for your loss. Abe truly was one of a kind. I never heard a negative thing from him, always optimistic and up beat. He was very kind, friendly, never judged, helpful, and very very giving. He really was a great example of how everyone should be. We will all miss you Abe. Rest in peace my friend.

I met Abe for the first time in January and I vividly remember thinking, that is a kind and wonderful young man. I could tell right off the bat, he was genuine and loving. I thought to myself, Sam, you did a good job with that young man. I could tell by his countenance and his personality Abe was special. Heaven needed a special Plumber. We love you all. Love Jerry & Stacy Krahenbuhl

Dear Sammy and family, Our hearts are filled with love and prayers for you and your family. Losing a child leaves such a hole in your heart, but knowing the peace your loved one is experiencing in heaven makes it a little easier to bare. Reading about his life and character does not surprise us because from the time you were small, you were a kind, caring boy. Your son followed in your foot steps. We remember you! Bless you and your family through this tough time of loss. We send our love.
