TERRY WAS MY COUSIN. AFTER MY DADS DEATH. I WENT TO STAY WITH THE FAMILY FOR A SHORT TIME. I LOST TRACK OF TERRY FOR A LONG TIME BUT A FEW YEARS AGO WE RECONNECTED WHICH WAS SO NICE. I WAS REALLY SHOCKED TO HEAR HE PASSED. TERRY WAS A GREAT GUY FROM WHAT I KNEW OF HIM IN HIS ADULT LIFE. TERRY WAS AWAYS CONCERNED ABOUT OTHERS. HEY TERRY YOU FLY HIGH NOW YOU CROSSED OVER TO THE NEXT CAMP. I KNOW YOU ARE IN HEAVEN WITH YOUR MOM AND DAD. AGAIN, I AM SO SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS.

My Uncle Terry can be best described as a kind hearted gentle compassionate individual that cared deeply for his family and was a great father. I remember his love for Cedar Mountain and being with his siblings. As a kid it was fun to watch them bring there love of golf to bull hollow and watch them enjoy Easter. Also it was always fun to have them play a little game of football with us. I enjoyed the time he would let me come to his house to be with my cousins and later in life wanting to know how I was and my family. You will be missed Love Ryan Powell
