

Terry Ronald (TR) Miller

October 30, 1952 ~ November 29, 2024

Nancy, I was surprised and saddened to hear of Terry’s passsing. Although I never knew him prior to his stroke, it was evident that he was a special man and we loved to be in his presence. I really enjoyed reading the wonderful obituary which taught me so much about his life. May God give you, and your entire family, peace and comfort.

The Ron and Mary Miller family were our next door neighbors growing up. Terry being the oldest was much older than me but I recall him being a real good example to his siblings. My sincere condolences for your loss. Much love, peace and comfort during this difficult time.

Nancy, we were saddened to hear of Terry's passing. Barbara Homer let us know. We didn't know him well but remember feeling of his kind spirit when we were with him and you. After reading his obituary, we realized what a kind, accomplished man he was. We hope you and your family will find comfort in the days to come. What a blessing to know that you will see him again. We aren't able to attend the funeral in person but are happy that we can view it via Zoom. Much love to you all, Gordon and Kathie

Nancy I am so sorry about Terry. I found his obituary today. What a beautiful tribute! I plan on coming to the viewing but I won’t be able to get to the funeral. I’ve been saying prayers for you and the family. May God’s comfort help heal your broken heart. ■■■■

We were sad to hear of Terry's fall and his passing. We loved visiting with you both and especially will remember Terry's greeting...the fist bumb...when we entered your home and when we left. He always made us feel welcome and we enjoyed getting to know you both. May peace and comfort come to you all as a family knowing there is no timetable to grieving and mourning. But the Holy Ghost will embrace you in the sad times. As you all know, you will see Terry again but for now he is busy and awaits you all. All our love, Stu and Ardis Jensen
