Our sweet Cindybell was reunited with her parents in heaven when she was suddenly taken from us on October 16, 2014. She was born October 25, 1962 in Salt Lake City, Utah to David Robert and Carol Thompson Gray. She grew up in Salt Lake City and graduated from Highland High School in 1981. She attended the University of Utah where she studied psychology. She married Scott E. White and had 4 children, and were divorced several years later. While she devoted her life to raising her beautiful children, she also spent many years sharing her talents acting and singing at Desert Star Playhouse. Cynthia found true love and happiness with her new husband, Michel Greco, with whom she married on September 6, 2014. Cindy was kind and showed loved to everyone she came in contact with. Although she was faced with many trials, she always found the beauty in life.

She is survived by her children Tucker, Scotty and Karli, Natalie, Danielle her husband, Michel, and siblings, Dave and Carole Howells, Dan and Becky Gray, and Ray and Debbie Bushnell; also her many nieces and nephews, too numerous to list, but whom she loved very much.
