Clark was an excellent engineer, always willing to help others. A friend & I started a small Mechanical Engineering firm in 1979 and Clark was always willing to share advice. I enjoyed his cowboy poetry and stories on many SMACNA jeep trips. He will be missed.

Annette, I don't know what to say, I only know that Randy, and I are so happy that we got to meet you, and Clark through the Model A. Club. It was always to nice to see both of you at our get togethers. I remember so many outings where we got to know each other better. I'm so glad that you became the driver, and still participated in the car events, and attended meetings. I know it was because of your love for Clark, and we benefited because we got to see both of you. I will always remember Clark's smile.

- Randy and Kathy Christiansen

Oh no. I just found out about Clark’s passing and I am very, very sad to hear. Clark was a legend in the engineering world in Utah. He was deeply respected as an engineer who really did think outside of the box. And if you knew him you instantly felt you were his best friend. He had that way about him. I was so lucky that as a youngster he allowed me to work for him. He was a mentor, leader and friend. Cherish your dear friends because you never know when you’ll never see them again. I’ll never see him again because I’m sure if there is an afterlife I’ll never make it to his level. Thank you Clark. We will all miss you.
