

Alan Montgomery Newton

November 13, 1965 ~ July 31, 2025

So beautifully written. Vicky, our love and prayers are for you and your precious children. I felt so blessed to be able to converse with Alan just a week before his passing. He was positive, honest, and had a sense of humor in regards to his situation. I have no doubt that he is forever grateful for the selfless, loving care you gave him. God will bless you. Love, Craig and Linda Hendry
