A great warrior and a long time friend. Will miss his association and time spent on the front porch solving the problems of the world.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you today!

I am honored to have known "Mr Duncan". As a young boy, He and "Mrs Duncan" always made me feel welcome when I was in their home. My earliest thoughts were how handsome and beautiful they were. I loved to hear Mrs Duncan talk. Her accent was enchanting. When she would say my name, it came out "Don" and I would continually correct her and state that my name was "Dan", and each time she would respond. "That is what I said sweetie ... 'Don'!!!". I enjoyed being a classmate with Chad and Shannon Duncan (twins) at Plymouth Elementary School, Eisenhower Junior High and Cottonwood High School. I was mesmerized by Chad's energy ... and could not get enough ... I made every effort to join him in every activity he pursued. My favorite time with Chad was in the Junior High School Play, "You're a Good Man Charlie Brown". Chad played the role of Charlie Brown, I played Linus and Gary Saxton played Schroeder. The three of us went on to become very close friends because of this experience. Gary and I called Chad "Tigger" (based on the Winnie-the-Pooh character) because Chad never seemed to walk ... he just bounced, bounced, bounced. My heart is filled with so much love and sorry for my friend who has lost both of his sisters and now his father. I love you Mrs Duncan ... I love you Chad Duncan ... Thank you for making the formative years of my life memorable and so much fun. Chad, how proud your father must be for passing down his legacy to your family and friends. God bless you my friend, God bless you Mrs Duncan ...especially during this time of sorrow. With my deepest sympathies and love, Dan Marshall Woolley
