I am so sorry for the loss of your wonderful son Zach❤■■■. It sounds like he was a wonderful and loving son❤■ May the Lord bless you with Peace and Love Forever and Always❤■ Love, Charlene Winmill McDougald White

- Charlene McDougald White

So sorry to hear of your loss. He sounds like an amazing guy. Sending love, peace and healing thoughts.

I can’t wait to bowl a game with Z Man with no handicaps. He was missed immediately when he moved to Utah. On one of my visits up there to see him we went to Chili’s by his house. And of course the waitress knew his name and knew who he was. Everywhere Xanman went he had fans. He was famous! I loved him dearly and my eyes leek as I think of the world without him. That’s great as the Johnsons are theZ man was the top of the heap. Hey y’all are all in my prayers.

We have so many wonderful memories of Zach (and your family) ! Our first thought was - now he can meet B. Hinckley!! From prom to bowling and fun times around your pool, Zach was amazing. As we celebrate his life along with you, we can't imagine the sorrow of his loss that you feel. We hope all the love of friends helps just a little to fill the void...Love you all.

- Charles and Linda Talbot

We were so saddened to learn of Zach’s passing. He was a wonderful and kind individual who brightened the world around him. May the Comforter give to peace as you mourn his loss.

- Karen and Dave McClure

Such a perfect description of Z and while we never met him we knew him through your stories and posts. Sad for you guys but so happy he is free of his bodily restrictions. ❤■❤■

- Mary and Kelly Suchyta/Murnin

Awww, the memories of Zman are made even more profound reading this incredible memory of him and his life. What a privilege to have had this man in my own life, he certainly brought a smile to my face every time I saw him! My heart is with each of you as you navigate the days and weeks ahead with memories of your own. Love to you all, jen

We love you guys! So sorry to hear of Z's death. We wish we could be with you, but we have an event we are in charge of that day. The Lord's love and comfort be with you.

- Louis and Sue Gebs

Dear Kathy and Ray… I didn't know your son Zach but I've heard nothing but wonderful things about him! I'm sorry for your loss! You are wonder people who are loved by all… especially our Heavenly Father!! ❤■ Heidi and Brad Parkin

- Heidi Parkin

What beautiful words and a life well lived! It was a privilege to know Zach!

- Jeffrey Bigelow

Dear Kathy & Ray, we're so sorry to hear about Zach's passing. Kyle still talks about playing basketball with him. He will be greatly missed. Love to your whole family.

- Debbie & Kyle Eddlemon

He sounds like a very special man. And you are a special family to celebrate and remember him with such fervor. May his memory always be a blessing to you.

- Jeremiah Levine

So sorry to hear of Zach's passing. What a light he was in your family! I loved reading about the way that he blessed the lives of all his family, including nieces and nephews! What good memories you have, although they may feel bittersweet when you miss him so much.

- Valerie Phillips

Dear Ray, Kathy and all of the Johnson family. We are so very sorry to hear about the passing of Zach. He was such a special person with such a huge heart and a great smile. I will never forget the impact he had on me while we were in Houston. May God shed light upon all of you and give all of you the strength and courage to live on and keep all of the special memories with Zach close to your hearts. With our Sincerest Sympathy, Collette & Kerry Haenes

My deepest condolences. What a beautiful tribute to your sweet son. We also just lost our 21 year old son in January from SUDEP. The pain is something you can’t put into words. One thing we do know is that they will never have to endure another seizure , being poked, or hospital visits again. I hope that gives you all a sort of peace also. Deepest sympathy. ■
