Carr of Salt Lake City, Utah; her son, Scott Carr of Salt Lake City; and her daughter, Kimberly (Carr) Fremont of Lake Ozark, Missouri, and husband Alan Fremont. She was a proud grandmother to Andrew Fremont (Susan) of Vanceboro, North Carolina; Brent Fremont (Marissa) of LaSalle/Peru, Illinois; and Daniel Fremont of Park City, Utah. Her legacy continues through her great-grandchildren: Raelynn, Emmy, William, and Remi.</blockquote><blockquote>She is also survived by her sister, Betty Weber of Cleveland, Ohio; sister-in-law, Carol Hamet of Kalamazoo, Michigan; and many nieces and nephews.</blockquote><blockquote>Marilyn was preceded in death by her parents, Ursula and Elmer Russell Pruden; siblings Kenneth (Helen), Arthur (Susie), and Nancy Pruden; and in-laws Grace and Robert Carr, Robert Weber, and Robert Hamet.</blockquote><blockquote>In her later years, Marilyn and William resided at The Ridge Foothill, where they enjoyed the caring staff and the companionship of new friends. Marilyn’s life was a testament to love, family, and the joy of shared moments.
