Wally D. Pueblo

July 6, 1936 ~ September 7, 2013

Wallace Dee Pueblo, 77, died peacefully at Lakeview Hospital in Bountiful, Utah on September 7, 2013. He was born July 6, 1936 in Salt Lake City to William Dee Pueblo and Mabel Jean Pueblo. Wally married Patricia Mae Doyle on September 9, 1955 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Hewas employed by Enoch Smith andSons Construction Company for 30 years. During his years with Enoch Smith, he survived being buried alive becoming an active member of The Turtle Club.

He traveled the world as a Site Coordinator with Jack Nicklaus Golf Services for 20 years. One of his passions was baseball and he was involved in the Rose Park WBBA Little League for over 10 years. His deepest passion was his love for cars and trucks which led him to open his own company, Artistic Vans and Trucks in 1975.

Survived by his children, Patti (Larry) Byrd, Mike (Marcee) Pueblo, Bob (Merry Kaye) Pueblo, Todd (Angie Richard) Pueblo, Jeff (Lisa) Pueblo, Tracey (Joe) Coffey, 15 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, and two sisters Bonnie Knell and Carolyn (James) Hoopes.Proceeded in death by parents, wife, brother-in-law Bruce Knell, great-grandson Max Pueblo and his little buddy "Corky."

The family would like to thank the Third Floor staff of Lakeview Hospital for their loving and professional care.

Services will be held Thursday, September 12, 2013 at 1:00 pm at the Rose Park 1st Ward, 720 North 1200 West, Salt Lake City, Utah. Friends and family can visit on Wednesday evening, September 11, from 6-9 at Larkin Mortuary and one hour prior to service at Rose Park 1st Ward.Interment at Bountiful City Cemetery at a later date. Online condolences at www.larkincares.com