

Allison Armstrong Glad

October 29, 1965 ~ May 27, 2023

Dear Clay and Family. I am so sorry for your loss. She sounds like a lovely lady. You paid great respect to her in the obituary and in your actions. I was always impressed with your constant support and care for her and her mother. May you be blessed with peace and beautiful memories.

- Jana Klein

A beautiful obituary. Allison seems like a remarkable woman.

- Aaron Wilson

To my nephew Clay, I am so sorry to learn of the passing of your dear companion. Surely the Lord will compensate by giving you comfort and blessings throughout your grieving process. My heart goes out to you. Your marriage is eternal, always remember that. Love, Aunt Marie

- Marie Merritt Tolman Wade

We are shocked and want to send you prayers of strength and comfort. Knowing what the Lord has given all of us eternal life, blesses us with only a temporary separation from our loved ones. Alison was a sweet lady and we have fond memories of her. Until we meet again.

- Jeffrey and Marianne Baugh

Dear Clay, Your loving tribute is a lovely example of caring. I hope you will be comforted knowing you are loved as well.

- Aunt Beth Merritt Zelanko

Dear Clay and family, My entire family and I were very sorry to hear about your loss. Allison was always such a kind person. We never saw her without a smile on her face. We truly miss you as our neighbors. Please accept our deepest condolences on your loss and our prayers for your family. Dennis and Laura Cuff
