I am so saddened by your loss. Breaks my heart to feel your grief at losing a loved one so young. Sorry for the pain he must been feeling. War is such a terrible thing that brings grief in so many ways. Love you Karen and Jay. Ann and Mark Larsen

My condolences to Alma's family. May he rest in peace and always be remembered as the loving, caring person he was. I'm so glad I had the opportunity to meet and work with him. You all are like family to me.

Andy's laughter still rings in my ears. I remember enjoying a special Thanksgiving with your family and the love I felt in your home was remarkable. I am grateful for the time I was able to spend with you all. Andy was full of spunk and fun. He could light up a room. I love the Worthington family. You all are in my prayers. I know that your relationship with Andy will continue. I know that because of Jesus Christ he will be resurrected and your family will be reunited. This life is but a moment. Hold on to the beautiful memories that make you smile. Speak of him often. Share stories with his children often . They will crave hearing stories about their Dad. Give them hugs and kisses often tell them their Dad loves them and is proud of them. They will need to hear that. Sending my love always. Hugs! Love, Celeste Yergensen
