This is just so heartbreaking! The quote "Only the good die young" never held so much meaning as it does now. Scott was such a wonderful person. His great smile, laugh and wittiness was something I always looked forward to when I would go to the Jackalope, and visiting Scott was often my main motivation in going! Everyone loved Scott, I know there are so many people grieving his loss right now deeply! I feel truly blessed to have been able to call him my friend for many years and will always cherish my memories of him! RIP Scott!

Hey brother, I was having a heavy moment of missing you today. I am writing this from Anderson Branch library, and it's a cold March ('23) day here in SLC. I wish I could call you and have you meet me for a beer because you are an expert at making me (and everyone) feel better. I need to hear your voice and hear you laugh and I need a hug, but I will wait until I see you on the other side for that I guess. Thank you for making me feel important and loved. xo Ka
