

Susan Ina Klein Beyer

January 31, 1947 ~ October 19, 2025

Susan Ina Klein Beyer, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away peacefully on October 19, 2025.

Sue was born on January 31, 1947, in New York and grew up in Brownsville, Texas. She attended Texas A&I University (now Texas A&M, Kingsville), where she earned degrees in psychology and sociology. It was there that Sue met the love of her life, Dean Beyer. After a brief but heartfelt courtship, they married in 1969 and shared a lifetime of devotion and companionship. Together, they raised two remarkable children in California, creating a home filled with love, laughter, and music.

Sue had a giving heart and a generous spirit that touched everyone she met. She shone brightest when serving others, whether through her delicious cooking, her thoughtful hospitality, or her kind and listening ear. In the 1980s, she owned and operated a catering business, bringing joy to countless gatherings with her warmth and culinary talents.

Classical music was the soundtrack of Sue's life. Eine Kleine Nachtmusik was one of her favorite pieces. She loved learning, asking questions, and exploring the world with curiosity and humor. Sue's quick wit, sass, and deep compassion made her a beloved role model to many nieces, nephews, and friends. Family and friendship were at the heart of everything she did.

Sue was preceded in death by her loving husband, Dean; her parents, Vernon Klein and Mildred Singer; her half-brother, Vernon; and many beloved cats who brought her endless joy.

She is survived by her daughter, Starr (David) Nelson; her son, Aaron (Rose) Beyer; her cherished grandsons, Jordan Nelson, Dalin (Jocelyn) Nelson, Harrison Nelson, Gavin Beyer, and Hayden Beyer; her adored great-granddaughter, Eliana Nelson; and her precious cats, Leonardo and Benzo
