In her early years she was Director of Brighton Girls Camp, taught high school PE, competed in and coached water sports. She retired from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Magazine Subscription Department. She was always a support for her children in their sports and activities. Verda Lou was preceded in death by her husband Ken, daughter Cindy Lee, and her parents. She is survived by her children Randy Joyce (Clark) Fisher, Kenneth P. Clayton III, Bruce (Laura) Clayton, and Laurie (Collin) Chandler. She was blessed with 13 grandchildren and six great grandchildren. At the request of Verda Lou, a private grave side service will be held for close family.
