Kaye Jackman Foster

May 30, 1958 ~ July 7, 2016

Kaye Jackman Foster, beloved wife, mother and grandmother, passed away on July 7, 2016, surrounded by her loving family, after a valiant battle with pancreatic cancer. Born on May 30, 1958, in Salt Lake City, Utah, Kaye graduated from West High School in Salt Lake City in 1976 and from Ricks College in Rexburg, Idaho in 1978. In 1979 she married Warren Foster and they had seven children and later, 5 grandchildren. In 1984, Kaye and her family moved to Anchorage, Alaska and in 1986 moved to Wasilla, Alaska. In 2006 they moved to Palmdale, Ca. and in 2009 moved back to their home in Wasilla. Kaye loved sewing, music, her friends and family, and the great Alaskan outdoors. She is survived by her husband, Warren Foster, children: Sarah Foster Stice, and her husband Todd and 3 children, W. Scott Foster Jr., Devan T. Foster and his wife Maura and child, Levi J. Foster, Rachele Foster Rohde and her husband John and child, Martin G. Foster, and April R. Foster. Her sister, Diana Jackman Karen, and brothers John Jackman, Randy Jackman, and Neal Jackman, and their families.

Funeral services will be held at the Rose Park LDS Stake Center, 760 No. 1200 W. Salt Lake City, Utah, onTuesday, July12, 2016at 11:00 am. This service will preceded by a private family viewing at10:30 am. Another service will be held at the LDS Wasilla Stake Center, 901 E. Bogard Road, Wasilla, Alaska, onThursday, July 14 2016at11:00 am. Online condolences: www.larkinmortuary.com