

Austin Terry Powell

January 26, 1995 ~ April 3, 2022

I am broken-hearted over your loss.May Austin be resting in peace. Victoria LeForestier

- Victoria LeForestier

Sending healing prayers and comforting hugs. We love you all. ■

- BreAnna & Terry Johnson

Sending so much love to you at this very difficult time. Our family will continue to hold you in our prayers and thoughts. Shannon Stuart & Kids

- Shannon Stuart

Please know that our heart is broken for you! So grateful to know that you will see Austin again! Love you and we will continually pray for you to have peace♥■♥■

- Max and Kathy Oldroyd

Mary Lynne shared this with me. I'm so sorry we haven't stayed in touch that last couple of decades, but I'm your cousin and I feel terrible about your loss. It just shouldn't happen this way. We old folks should be the ones leaving, not the young! Deepest condolences. Maxine (Anderson) Babalis

- Maxine Babalis

Shelley, Please forgive me. I put Mary Lynne's name instead of yours. I'm getting old and feeble-minded. Maxine

- Maxine Babalis

We will miss our Austin. We have precious memories of him and those we get to keep. I love my Diehl Family who Austin is an important part of. My deepest sympathy to the Powell Family. RIP Austin.

- Rashelle Hobbs

My heart hurts for the sadness engulfing your life’s, I’d like to think George, Vi and Diane have taken Austin under their angel wing. It’s a long road to find comfort in this tragedy and I’ll be keeping the Diehl family in my thoughts and heart.

- Diane Pannunzio Scott