

Alexis Zwahlen

June 9, 1988 ~ October 29, 2020

Alexis Noelle Zwahlen passed away unexpectedly on October 29th, 2020.

Lexi was born on June 9, 1988, the first child of Fred A. Zwahlen and Pauline M. Lucas.
She is survived by her parents, her children, Liliana Remi Gallegos and Dakota Aspen Gallegos, their father, Ricky Jesse Gallegos, her brother Tyler Zwahlen (Brittnee Walton), Rick Jerry (Karen Ann) Gallegos and Lexi's Grandad, Clarence Vance Lucas.
Lexi enjoyed nature, especially at this time of year, autumn being her favorite season with the colors of the leaves changing. She chose to leave us to appreciate the beauty of the season in her memory. In the years to come, when we see the first leaves falling, we will remember her and find peace.

Lexi was the most loving mother, and her children would tell you the same. She was devoted to her childrens' activities, from numerous softball games, to countless Girl Scout meetings, she was there. Along side being a professional Esthetician, she also enjoyed quilting and arts and crafts with her family and friends.

Lexi couldn't walk into a room without lighting it up. With her contagious laugh, her beautiful smile and her infectious energy you couldn't help but be struck by it.

A viewing will be held on Tuesday, November 3rd, 2020 at Larkin Mortuary (260 E South Temple, Salt Lake City, Utah 84111) from 11AM-1PM, followed by a grave side service at Mount Calvary Catholic Cemetery and Mausoleum (275 U St, Salt Lake City, Utah 84103) at 1:30PM.
