Ethan James Carron

March 6, 1997 ~ March 14, 2020

Our dear brother, son, uncle, and friend, Ethan James Carron, 23, chose March 14, 2020 to find peace. Ethan was born in Cary, North Carolina on March 6, 1997 to Graham and Susan (Brand) Carron.

Ethan had a flair for the dramatic and loved to create things. He was an actor, a writer, and an artist. His passion for making art was almost matched by his appreciation for the art of others. Ethan loved music, books, television, and especially film. One of his favorite locations was the Broadway Theatre in Salt Lake City where he would take anyone and everyone to watch independent films.

Ethan will be remembered for his enthusiasm, sincerity, warmth, acceptance of others, and the way he lived his life on his own terms without worrying about the judgment of others. He was a fiercely dedicated uncle to his nieces, Elliot and Scout, and nephews, Tucker and Calvin, who all adored him; a loving brother to Bethany Madsen (husband Jeff) and Philip (wife Stacia), Benjamin (wife Abigail), Gregory, and John Carron; a beloved son of Graham and Susan Carron; and grandson of John Carron. He is preceded in death by his grandparents, James and Mildred Brand, and Shirley Carron. He is also survived by many adoring aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.
