

Amie Nielsen

December 15, 1972 ~ September 19, 2024

Amie Nielsen was born in Salt Lake City, Utah on December 15, 1972, to Robert Douglas Nielsen and Karen Cummings Nielsen.

This remarkable and accomplished woman passed away peacefully on September 19, 2024, from ovarian cancer.

Amie had a brilliant intellect and a wide variety of interests from the arts to the sciences and everything in between. Amie was a graduate of Skyline High School Class of 1991. She continued her education at Wellesley College earning a bachelor's degree in biological chemistry. Amie pursued her passion to help others by studying medicine at Johns Hopkins School of Medicine followed by a residency in Emergency Medicine at the Carolinas Medical Center. She returned to Salt Lake City in 2003 to start her professional career working in the Emergency Department at Saint Marks Hospital in Millcreek, Utah, where she worked for 19 years until her cancer diagnosis in 2022. She was greatly loved by her coworkers and was known as a jokester. She was not afraid to play pranks on them during their shifts together.

Amie was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She held numerous church positions many of which involved working with the young women. She went to great efforts to make each of them feel special and loved. She was a great example of someone who loved our Savior and was never hesitant to share her testimony of Him. She followed His example by loving and serving those around her that were in need.

Amie had the ability to make friends easily and developed many life-long friendships. She enjoyed doing fun activities such as boating, water and snow skiing, and running marathons. She also loved being pampered and experiencing the finer things of life.

She is the mother of three children whom she adored. Caring for her family was her top priority. Her devotion to them was unmatched. She put her heart and soul into everything she did for them including making holidays and birthdays spectacular. Amie loved watching her children play sports. A cherished family memory was their time traveling together with the 13U Grays baseball team.

Amie was a dedicated daughter who loved and honored her parents. She compassionately cared for her mother (15 years) and her father (8 years).She freely gave of her medical expertise and her time to help them through their very challenging health issues. We are comforted knowing that she is now reunited with them. We will miss you in every possible way. We love you Amie, our wonderful mother, sister and friend.

Amie was preceded in death by her parents. Survived by her children: Avery, Courtland, and Paige Bills; siblings: Robert Brent (Heather) Nielsen and Nanette Hexem.

The family wishes to thank all who helped care for Amie during her courageous battle with cancer and especially those who cared for her during her final weeks. She fought this disease with grace and dignity and handled each challenge with aplomb as she did with life challenges in general and without complaint. She had a wry sense of humor and was able to find humor with her family in a lot of these difficult circumstances.
