

Audrea Eastman Farley

November 15, 1936 ~ August 30, 2022

Audrea Eastman Farley passed away August 30, 2022 at Intermountain Medical Center in Murray. Born November 15, 1936, in Herriman, Utah, she was the second child of Harvey Reuben Eastman and Orpha Beatrice Bills.

Audrea married Lyman Farley on January 30, 1959, in Herriman, Utah. Her passion in life was her family. She cherished visits from her grandchildren and great-grandchildren and enjoyed playing games with them. She also spent countless hours researching her family history and was an active member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Audrea's cooking was well-known to those who had the privilege of tasting it. She enjoyed camping and going on rides up the canyon. She had a green thumb and always had a stunning array of flowers growing around her house. She was talented with crocheting and decked her house out for the holidays, particularly Christmas, where she proudly displayed her collection of Christmas tree ornaments.

She was preceded in death by her parents, one brother, Kenneth Eastman, and her husband. She is survived by her two sons, Scott (Debbie) Farley and Jerry (Wendy) Farley, four siblings, Del Ray Eastman, Evon Rushton, Darlene Oakeson, Gary Eastman, four grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Audrea had a big heart and was always willing to sit down and comfort those who needed it. She was truly a sweet and generous lady.

A viewing will be from 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, September 7, at Larkin Mortuary, 3688 W 12600 S, Riverton, UT. Graveside services and interment will begin at 12:00 p.m. at Herriman Cemetery, 12465 Pioneer St, Herriman, UT.
