

Brent B. Kelsch

October 9, 1970 ~ April 24, 2026

Brent B. Kelsch, 55, passed away unexpectedly on April 23, 2026.

Born on October 9, 1970, in Salt Lake City, Utah, Brent lived a life centered on family, friendship, and hard work. He built a long and respected career in the HVAC industry, where he was known for his dedication, skill, and reliability.

Brent was a proud father to three beautiful children—Kelsha, Eyan, and Faith—and a loving grandfather to three grandchildren, who brought him great joy and happiness. He cherished time with his family above all else.

Brent had a deep connection with God and held strong religious beliefs. He carried a firm sense of right and wrong and stood by his convictions. He valued his independence and believed strongly in personal freedoms, with a deep appreciation for the rights and values of his country.

He had a wide circle of friends and family who loved him dearly. Brent formed lasting connections wherever he went and was always willing to lend a helping hand. His cousin and close friend, Boaz Kunz, held a special place in his heart. Brent will be remembered for his bright, cheerful smile, his deep, contagious laughter, and a signature swagger—more like a bounce—that made his presence unforgettable.

He is survived by his children, Kelsha Vi Kelsch, Eyan Colby Kelsch, and Faith Elizabeth Kelsch; his grandchildren, Anya Clare Kelsch, Brooklyn Elizabeth Larson, Andrew Kol Larson; his ex-wife Shirley Kelsch; his mothers, Alice Faye Kelsch and Linda Beth Kelsch; and many brothers, sisters, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A viewing will take place on May 1, 2026, at Larkin Mortuary located at 3688 W 12600 S, Riverton, UT 84065 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m, followed by a graveside service at Elysian Burial Gardens located at 1075 E 4580 S, Millcreek, UT 84117 at 1:00 p.m. We will have a Celebration of Life luncheon held at 12244 South Janice Drive, Riverton 84065 beginning at 2 p.m. to 7 p.m.
