

Brigham Darger

November 29, 1988 ~ July 30, 2023

Brigham Darger, loving son, father, brother and friend, unexpectedly transcended this life July 30, 2023 at his home in Southern Utah. He was born November 29, 1988 at his parents' home in Taylorsville, Utah.

Brigham leaves his beautiful and beloved fiancé Maria Jose Leon and was a dedicated father to his son Kwahli and his daughter Azlin whom he loved deeply. He is survived by his mother Shauna Lynne (Barlow), bonus mothers Melinda, Brenda, and Debbie, the mother of his children Quilla, a multitude of siblings, nieces, nephews and family, by choice and by birth, who dearly loved him. He was preceded in death by multiple grandparents, his niece Kyra, and his father Joseph Lynn Darger who adored Brigham.

Brigham was never a conformist and lived a colorful and full life, including several near death experiences that shifted the trajectory of his life. Some knew him as Brigham, others knew him as Patryck Engen. He never shied away from experiencing everything and through it all had found his peace and embraced his roots as Brigham Darger.

His passion in life was to create healing in the service of others and he dedicated his life to it. He created community and connection with people wherever he went, and spent time and resources developing his property in Southern Utah as a healing center. He spent years in the Amazon training to become a well-respected Taita and served people worldwide with indigenous medicine. He is known for his courage, love and commitment to carry the medicine with honor, respect and humility.

He merged with The Light at the end of his life; he remembered himself one with the “I AM Presence”.
Brave and compassionate heart, thank you for your service.

In one word, Brigham was love.

His body will be cremated and ashes spread on the land he loved. Due to his young age and lack of life insurance, for those wishing to send condolences we encourage a donation instead to the memorial funds created at Mountain America Credit Union or through Venmo at https://venmo.com/u/bpdfund.
