Dear Joel, Our love and prayers are sent your way. Barbara was a beautiful and talented lady. We loved seeing you two together. You always had a glow between you. We wish you peace and comfort through the knowledge of being together forever. Do to health issue, we are sorry we won't be able to attend the viewing or service, but look forward to watching the service via internet. Hopefully, we as cousins will be able to get together for a happier time soon. We love you and your family.
