I heard somewhere a quote. "Life is but a series of tragedies interrupted by brief moments of joy". I don't know who said it, but it seems so true. Ben, to your family and friends, you were a joy. I'm sorry your moments here now seem so brief. Bob, Lilian, Emily, Taylor, and all of us in Ben's family, I'm so sorry, Let's try to focus on the moments of joy.

Ben was a friend of this family and we will always appreciated his respect for our daughter who allowed her friendship and support for him, for a time. He was way ahead of his age on this earth, and that is what brought some of his successes. God bless his family and his work family. We that knew him, knew that both were important to him. An self made entrepreneur.

Ben was a man of MANY words. His humor, sarcasm and smile could light up the darkest of rooms. One of the best negotiaors in the business, I never wanted to sit across the table from Ben. A bear in business a teddy bear in friendship. His presence will be missed. My condolences to Ben's family and friends. No words can express my sorrow for this loss. My thoughts are with all of you. May yours be full of joyous memories, hope and healing.

Ben was so energetic and to pass on at such a young age with the wife and four children saddens all of us. Our hearts and prayers and with you all.

When Ben lived in our ward he spent time advising our oldest son about life. Also, he was always very engaging and interested in people. He will be missed.

- John Guynn

Ben was such a lively and rowdy spirit and always had the quickest wit and contagious laughter. On the serious side, I recall multiple times seeing him diligently researching on behalf of his client, often well after the majority of the office had cleared out. He truly inspired excellence and hard work, and demonstrated often how to play hard when the work was done. I am so sorry for his family's loss. I hope your healing process is filled with loving memories.

I was so shocked to learn of Ben’s passing. That’s just not supposed to happen to young men Ben’s age with 4 small children! Ben was an enthusiastic colleague and it was always nice to run into him at ICSC Las Vegas. I know Chad and all of you followed Ben and Chad as they built a great multi-state commercial brokerage. He will be sorely missed by those of us who knew him only professionally, not to mention those who flew in his immediate orbit. My deepest sympathies to Chad and the brokers and employees of Mountain West, and most importantly to his wife and family.

I was heart broken to see this news. Ben was one of my favorite people in high school. He made long shifts at Zuka Juice much more fun. He was one of the most kind and genuine people I knew. I appreciated his friendship so much. Love and prayers to your family. May you find peace and always feel Ben’s love and support with you.
